

What would YOU like to learn?

How about learning how to mend a bicycle tire, remove a stain, write a letter to the editor, start skating, knitting or tidy up those piles of papers at your desk? Maybe something more exceptional, like learning how to meet a ghost, flirt successfully or become just a little bit famous?

Use the suggestions above as inspiration only and dare to dream for any new talent or trade. You can wish for whatever it is you feel like learning. No wish is too small, crazy or ambitious. During September 2009 I will be working out of the West Chicago City Museum and doing my very best to match local people willing to share their talents with others. If I am able to locate a person matching your wish, a teaching session will be set up at the West Chicago City Museum. The duration of each session is about 1 hour depending on the skill being taught.

IF I CAN DO IT, YOU CAN DO IT TOO

Please write a short statement on what you would like to learn and why and include your name, age, phone number and email address. You can submit your wish to the mail address below or hand in a note at The West Chicago City Museum. After business hours wishes can also be dropped off through the mail slot. I will contact you as soon as possible. All participation is free.

Best wishes
